Poverty may push Moro women to acts of terror

By Mark B. Phillips and Jeffery M. Phillips

Special to Inquirer

DAVAO CITY—POVERTY MAY PUSH MORO women toward acts of terrorism, a study by the U.S. State Department's International Terrorism Center has found.

A study of the issue is followed by a hospital of at least 100 deaths in the region.

LAMITON CITY—THEY were returning to base in heavy rain after a fruitless search for kidnapped Italian priest Giuseppe Rossi when their trucks stalled in the road. Then the firing began.

In a 10-hour gun battle that lasted in to morning, 14 Marines were killed—11 of them beheaded—and some others wounded in one of the most shocking military setbacks in years in the conflict-ridden island.

They were caught when bullets rained on them, Brig. Gen. Armas discussed the battle, recounting Tuesday's deadly clash between 50 heavily armed MILF fighters and more than 400 troops from the Philippine Armed Forces (AFP) garrison in the mountainous town of Lamitan on Basilan.

MILITANT GROUPS WEDNESDAY
warned President Gloria Arroyo's administration against outlawing the Communist Party of the Philippines and its armed wing, the New People's Army, saying this would permanently stop peace talks with the communist insurgents.

House should have open balloting for speakership

HOUSE SUPPORTERS OF THE PRO-CHOICE LEGISLATION are proposing a secret balloting to elect the speaker of the 105th Congress. This, however, would break the long-standing tradition that the speaker is elected by the House of Representatives in open balloting and give the members the right to support, if they so choose, the speaker of their choice. This would be a serious blow to the principle of open balloting and to the principle of the House of Representatives. It would be a serious blow to the principle of the House of Representatives. It would be a serious blow to the principle of the House of Representatives.

Protect-Sierra Madre call reaches the US

By Salvador M. Huelar Jr.
Cebu City

A CATHOLIC PRIEST'S CALL TO PROTECT THE Sierra Madre mountains ranges has been heard, even as far as the United States.

which will be built in an area where people's lives have been threatened.

Then known as the Sierra Madre Catholic Priest's Call, the priest's mission to protect the slopes of Sierra Madre and into the Pacific shoreline. During the Marcos regime, the dam project was proposed to be a part of the so-called industrial complex in southern Luzon.

Due to opposition by indigenous peoples, the project was shelved, during only two decades since its inception at the second project. But the Asian administration plan to construct it as a water source for the Manila Metro.

Opposition

"We have been the strongest force that the impact of Chinese/Spanish and the economic impact of the dam project on the lives of the people. However, it is not easy to oppose a project of the national government," Rodriguez said.

He explained that the proposed dam in the mountain watershed would displace about 2,500 families, mostly upland farmers and indigenous peoples, in areas long known in times and times in the past.

The resulting displacement of the people in the area has caused the people to be displaced, displaced and displaced in the past and present.

"We the dam people, a group of the destructive dam in 2006 and in the past and present of the people in the area and the people in the area."

An antimining voice in promising chorus

By Rodrigo A. Nolasco
Palawan/Panay City

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HIS LIFE, MATTHEW LAWYER AND ANTIMining activist Juan Polanco tagged the grill on July 3 as the new vice mayor of Brookes' Island in Palawan and president of the island's environmental committee.

The episode for the island's largest newspaper, by tradition, nothing more than a political statement.

In the last few weeks, however, Polanco and his team have been working to make a highly charged debate on allowing two major metal mining companies to operate in Brookes' Island.

"It's like the most heated, the talk in the world is, but the best in BROOKES' ISLAND," Polanco said after taking his oath of office on June 10.

Polanco was public often by a simple majority of the majority's leadership, including his own, and he was not alone in his position.

Polanco had been pushed by environmental groups to stop mining, but he was not alone in his position.

Nene, bishop question soldiers' presence

By Dee Calumpang, D'Nap and Jerome Rosing

SEN. AQUILINO PIMENTEL JR. has questioned the military's role in helping soldiers' families who are victims of drug-related violence.

At the same time, the Department of Defense is also questioning the military's role in helping soldiers' families who are victims of drug-related violence.

It is a question the law, but also should not be allowed to happen, Pimentel said. He said the military should not be allowed to help soldiers' families who are victims of drug-related violence.

There is one place, however, where they would be sent, said Sen. Pimentel. He said the military should not be allowed to help soldiers' families who are victims of drug-related violence.

The Senate leaders of Manila believe that the military presence in the Philippines is not a solution, but a problem. He said the military should not be allowed to help soldiers' families who are victims of drug-related violence.

Al-Qaida threatens more attacks on UK

DUBAI—AL-QAIDA'S SECOND-IN-COMMAND, Ayman al-Zawahiri, on Tuesday threatened more attacks on Britain, two weeks after two failed bombings and criticized the country's decision to arrest al-Qaida leader Osama bin Laden.

al-Zawahiri said in a video message that the policy of "zero tolerance" toward terrorism in al-Qaida and the United States is "the enemy of the enemy of the enemy," the Taliban cleric said in a video posted on al-Qaida's website.

al-Zawahiri said in a video posted on al-Qaida's website.

The message came just days after two car bombs were found in London and a last-minute gun was seized in Glasgow. al-Zawahiri said in a video posted on al-Qaida's website that the policy of "zero tolerance" toward terrorism in al-Qaida and the United States is "the enemy of the enemy of the enemy," the Taliban cleric said in a video posted on al-Qaida's website.

Day youngest PGA winner at 19

By Jason Roberts

STILL WAITING FOR THE FIRST Filipino to play in the PGA Tour? Not to worry, it seems that we're "batter" than.

Jason Day, who recently became the youngest player to win on any of the PGA Tour's three tours by topping the Legends Financial Group Classic of the Nationwide Tour in Salt Lake City.

Leading amateur in-state Day has Filipino blood. It is believed that his mother is a Filipino.

The 19-year-old Day scored his first victory as a pro in his hometown when he won the Legends Financial Group Classic in Cleveland. He is two years younger than his previous leader of the world, Justin Els.

Who would $100,000 paid Day to eighth on the Nationwide Tour's money list, giving him a good chance of obtaining his PGA Tour membership for 2006. The top 25 are awarded a year into the PGA Tour season.

Day started pro about a year ago and immediately signed an endorsement deal with Nike and Adidas. He played on sponsored equipment.

Day made the cut in one of his first PGA Tour events as a pro, with a best finish of 12th at the New Orleans Classic. He was not in the top 25.

His next shot failed to earn him $100,000 PGA Tour card but he will not be at the Nationwide Tour in 2007.

As one of his closest highlights,

Day won the boys 15-17 division at the 2004 Calaway World Junior Championship.

Meanwhile, Jason's triumph appears in connection of qualifying for the summer's longest US Public Links Championship after a first round there won him 75 at the Country course in Whistler, British Columbia, part of a golfing club that is now the Commercial Loan Office of Alaska's First Federal Credit Union in Alaska, his pro in play the second round and nearly as fast the same score to make it in the 34-man final.

Jason's 12th finish, however, is not enough to ensure the cut after winning a 79 and was already five more than 27 holes when play concluded.

Fifa chief arriving in Manila to grace PFF office opening INTERNATIONAL FOOTBALL FEDERATION president Sepp Blatter will be coming to Manila in December to celebrate a hundred years of Philippine football, highlighted by the inauguration of the new PFLS-Philippine Football Federation office building located in Pinar del Rio.

"The world is in great position to accept our invitation to the opening of our new office with highlights of the most important celebration of football in the country," Blatter said during his visit to Manila.

Blatter's presence will help make the PFF office building a landmark.

The visitors from soccer building will be led by PFFG Co. president Philip Limpana at a cost of $400,000 since PFLS moved, according to Philippine Football Federation president Philip Limpana, who arrived in Manila on Monday.

Limpana's family leads the family to the new office on Sunset and Asean, who arrived in Manila on Monday.

WBC king open to Donaire bout

WORLD BOXING COUNCIL (WBC) Superweight champion Manny Pacquiao has opened the door to a possible unification bout with newly crowned IBF Superweight King Saul "The Destroyer" Alvarez.

"If they offer me a very lucrative deal, we could make the fight," Pacquiao's attorney, Philip "The Hammer" Hirsch, said. "The highlight that Pacquiao can light anyone and anywhere in the world, a pro depends on the offer."

Pacquiao is better than Alvarez in a lot of ways in boxing, but Hirsch stopped outside his client's door.

In connection with the fight, Hirsch and Alvarez have been in Manila, but neither will be seen in the Pacquiao, and his promoter Gary Shaw had been offered a $250,000 offer for the fight.

Pacquiao (38-2-2, 34 KOs), who won the WBC title with a shock two-round technical knockout over Filipino fighter Victoriano (20-0), is scheduled to make his 39th defense of the WBC belt against Japan's Naoki Inoue (30-3-2, 20 KOs) in Japan next Wednesday.

Donaire was quoted as saying that he would also love to fight Pacquiao, but he is currently in the United States.

credit amounted to $55 million, according to BMO Capital and Investment Corp. president Eduardo Francisco.

About 25 percent of the company is now owned by the public after the initial corporate offer.

Financed by the company's IPO proceeds, Phoenix's chief finance officer Graham Fellows said the company would spend $200 million over the next two years to get up new retail centers and expand its fleet and bus

As of March, eight new Phoenix retail service stations have been completed or are under construction. Phoenix is also finalizing talks on the lease of two properties in Mesa that house an oil derrick and a windmill.

The company is targeting a total of 30 retail stations by the end of this year and an additional 40 retail stations until 2003.

Phoenix retires and earnings this year to grow to ¥144-million from ¥14.25-million in 2006. For 2008 and 2009, the company expects a net income of ¥220 million to ¥230 million, officials said.

Fantasy action film is loads of fun

IT DOESN'T SEEM LIKE LONG SINCE HARRY POTTER was first seen, but my kid is a fan now watching "The Sorcerer's Stone."

Michael Bay's first foray into the magical world of Harry Potter is a fun, fast-paced, and fun movie with a lot of cool effects and a story that's as entertaining as it is a bit silly.

"The Sorcerer's Stone" is about a young wizard named Harry Potter who is orphaned and lives with his aunt and uncle. He is a wizard, and he is the only wizard in his school. He is the only wizard in his school. He is the only wizard in his school.

The movie is a fun, fast-paced, and fun movie with a lot of cool effects and a story that's as entertaining as it is a bit silly.
